

When to use this form

Fill in this form if the people who have inherited the deceased's household and personal goods:

- wish to donate some or all of them to a qualifying charity
- wish to deduct charity exemption against the value of the estate

If you fill in this form you will not have to submit a formal Instrument of Variation (IOV) to deduct charity exemption for any household and personal goods given to charity by the beneficiaries.

You should not fill in this form to deduct charity exemption for any household and personal goods that pass to charity under the deceased's will.

Additional requirements

If the deceased died on or after 6 April 2012, you must send proof with this form that the charity has received the goods being passed to it.

All the people who have inherited the household and personal goods must sign this form.

Qualifying charities

A qualifying charity is one that:

- is established in the European Union or other specified country
- meets the English law definition of a charity
- has managers who are fit and proper persons to be managers of the charity
- is regulated in the country of establishment, if that is a requirement in that country

Name of deceased

Date of death DD MM YYYY

Inheritance Tax reference number (if known)

Declaration

I/We, the undersigned, are entitled to the above named deceased's household and personal goods under their will/intestacy. The deceased's will/intestacy is varied, so that:

- all the household and personal goods go to the charity or charities shown below ☐
- only those household and personal goods shown in the schedule overleaf go to the charity or charities shown below ☐

Full name of charity or charities, country of establishment and HM Revenue and Customs reference number of the charity, if available.

I/We intend that the provisions of section 142(1) Inheritance Tax Act 1984 and section 62(6) Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 shall apply to this variation.
